

Killing Krazed Kannibals
by Del Jones, The War Correspondent

Christopher Scarver reportedly said “Now my life has meaning” after he allegedly killed convicted kannibal Jeffery Dahmer for dining on community members. “God told me to do it” they said, he said after completing the deed.

It was almost five years ago when the people’s justice reached the little Kannibal but it is still important today. Racist crimes have increased as the so-called authorities look the other way... when they are not participating.

Church burnings, physical attacks, harassment and lynchings are the order of the day. Some how many think grassroots people are not noticing their rapid demise here in Blue Babylon. The community feels restless as some organize themselves for self defense. Meanwhile, nationwide the police are opening fire on us more and more as we die in the liberty bells shadow.

Dahmer’s method was kannibalism, some drag us behind their trucks, while traditionalist still appreciate a sturdy tree. In ill-a-delphia another pale kannibal is in jail for raping, murdering and eating women in the ‘hood. Hopefully, the brothers locked down with him will handle our business. If the guards get careless with him and let him wonder out of their protective sight... well film at 11.

Interesting enough, the only person on this earth fighting to save his pitiful life is his "Black daughter," who had never met her cave dwelling father before he became infamous for raping, munching and murdering her Black Sisters. In her madden state she's fighting hard to save him. She is also krazy as shit... like father, like daughter.

Yeah, Gary Heidnik cooked women in pots, raped corpses and kept the women captured in cages. Like Dahmer, he set up in the 'hood. He operated in North Philly and Dahmer in Milwaukee. Obviously, our communities are so disorganized white kannibals can operate without anyone knowing or caring. We are worse off than you think homey.

We are the lambs they have been silent about, off we go to the slaughter. And you thought Amerikkka was heaven on earth. It is Blue Babylon and we are sinking into a terrordom of no return.

In our continuing holocaust we must back off our enemies or perish in the so-called new millennium. Blue Babylon is the only place where we celebrate drug dealers, pimps, 'hos and the criminal and run from the Black Nationalists, who risk their lives for you, fight for you, die for you. Ask ya self are you really worth it?

Most flee screaming "I don't want to here that Black Shit." One day you will regret your ignorance if you don't wake up and live. You Heard? It is never too late to investigate for yourself, but be careful. You know and I know once ya know there is no turning back.
